AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

First Affirmative Defense:

The ‘190, ‘021, ‘034, ‘083, and ‘702 Patents have not been: (i) directly infringed by

Artesyn; (ii) contributorily infringed by Artesyn; or (iii) infringed through active inducement by Artesyn.

Second Affirmative Defense:

The '190, '021, '034, '083, and '702 Patents, and each asserted claim in suit of the identified patents, are invalid for failure to comply with the grounds specified in Part II of Title 35 United States Code as a condition for patentability, and, in particular, 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, and 103.

Third Affirmative Defense:

The '190, '021, '034, '083, and '702 Patents, and each asserted claim in suit of the identified patents, are invalid for failure to comply with the grounds specified in 35 U.S.C. § 112.

Fourth Affirmative Defense:

Astec is without liability in the civil action as a result of other facts and circumstances allowed as a defense by, including but not limited to, 35 U.S.C. § 287.

Fifth Affirmative Defense:

Because of proceedings in the United States Patent and Trademark Office during the prosecution of the applications, which resulted in the '190, '021, '034, '083, or '702 Patents, the plaintiff is estopped to claim a construction of the asserted claims in the identified patents that would cause any such valid claim thereof to cover or include any of Artesyn's alleged infringing products.

Sixth Affirmative Defense:

To the extent Artesyn has made, used, and/or sold any products that perform the functions of the devices or methods recited in the claims of the '190, '021, '034, '083, or '702

Patents, infringement cannot be found because—in addition to not meeting the limitations of the claims in the identified patents—any such products are so far changed in principle from the claimed subject matter that they perform the same function in a substantially different way.

Seventh Affirmative Defense:

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of laches.

Eighth Affirmative Defense:

Plaintiff's enforcement of the asserted patents constitutes patent misuse.
